Food & Beverage Guidelines:

Associates may order food and beverages from the bakery, coffee station, and other food outlets before, during, and after their shift, adhering to the following:

- Hourly employees must be off the clock unless approved by their manager.
- Employees must disguise their uniform from the guest's view and remove name tags while using food outlets.
- Employees should avoid waiting in lines for food during high-volume business days and should order online.
- Employees who refuse to let guests go ahead of them in line may be asked to pay full price.
- Food outlet management may use discretion on when to serve employees based on business needs.
- Employees must ask for their employee discount and provide their full name, department, and/or proof of current employment (name tag, Scheduling app on phone, manager's name).
